Pathway I Early Learning Scholarships

increase access to high-quality early childhood programs for children in high need families meeting eligibility requirements in order to improve school readiness. Preschool children age three to five and some children age birth to two may qualify.

Scholarships up to $7500 are paid to the eligible Parent Aware Rated or participating early childhood program that the family chooses including: licensed family child care and child care centers, Head Start, school district pre-k and preschool programs. Pathway I scholarships "follow the child" and are awarded to the family for up to 12 months.
